MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE JUDICIAL RESEARCH AND TRAINING INSTITUTE
OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE REPUBLIC OF KOREA

AND

THE SINGAPORE JUDICIAL COLLEGE
OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SINGAPORE

ON

ADVANCING CONTINUING JUDICIAL EDUCATION

The Judicial Research and Training Institute of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Korea and the Singapore Judicial College of the Supreme Court of the Republic of Singapore (hereinafter individually referred to as a "Party", and collectively referred to as "the Parties"),

DESIRING mutual cooperation to advance continuing judicial education opportunities between Korea and Singapore as well as understanding and friendship between the officials of Korea and Singapore,

Have reached the following understanding:

1. The Parties agree to promote cooperation and mutually exchange expertise in the area of judicial education.
2. For each year that this Memorandum is in effect, each Party will initiate at least one judicial education opportunity, which may be attended by up to three (3) judges (including other qualified personnel) nominated by the other Party. Besides advancing continuing judicial education, this cooperation aims to introduce the participants to the Parties' policy thinking on key areas of judicial administration and selected establishments, and to facilitate exchanges of views between the judges of the Parties on pertinent issues of judicial interest.

3. The host Party will only be responsible for the cost of the training of the participants for the duration of the training. The sending Party will be responsible for all other costs of the attendance, including international airfares, accommodation, travel or other insurance, land transfers, per diem and incidentals.
4. Each Party shall maintain in confidence the terms of or any negotiations and matter relating to this Memorandum and all confidential information relating to the other Party, and take reasonable precautions to keep that information confidential. This Article shall continue to apply even after the expiry or termination of this Memorandum without limit in time.
5. This Memorandum (including any amendments made pursuant to Article 9) does not, and is not intended to constitute or create any legally binding obligations for either Party under domestic or international laws.
6. Any dispute regarding the interpretation, application or implementation of the provisions of this Memorandum will be resolved amicably through consultations and negotiations between the Parties.
7. This Memorandum will come into effect on the date of signing and remain effective for two (2) years. The Parties will review this Memorandum and the need for, and possibility of, its extension, three (3) months prior to its expiry and may agree, in writing, to extend this Memorandum for a specified duration of two (2) years.
8. Either Party may terminate this Memorandum, upon giving six (6) months' written notice to the other Party.
9. This Memorandum may be amended at any time by mutual written consent of the Parties. Any amendment which has been agreed upon by the Parties shall come into effect on such date as agreed by the Parties and shall be considered an integral part of this Memorandum.
